Celebrating a historic flight

March 19 marked 60 years since Jerrie Mock departed on her historic flight around the world. Over the next 29 days, 11 hours, and 59 minutes, Jerrie would go on to be the first female to ever fly solo around the world, logging 23,103 miles and 21 stopovers. She departed and landed right here at CMH. Read more about Jerrie Mock's full journey on our website.
