

Travel made easier at Columbus airports

The travel bug is back! With more Americans hitting the skies, it's a great time to explore that dream destination or revisit a cherished favorite. But if you haven't traveled in a while, especially if you're an older adult, the process might feel a bit overwhelming.

To recognize Older Americans Month this May, we've got you covered. Check out our blog to see a new article packed with tips to make your next adventure smooth sailing.

Learn more

Gear up for the 2024 Air Show

Get ready for thrills in the sky! The 2024 Columbus Air Show is roaring back into town, promising an unforgettable experience for aviation enthusiasts of all ages.

This year's headliner is the awe-inspiring U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds, known for their breathtaking aerial maneuvers and precision flying.

Read more

Something new is brewing

Craving a taste of the good life? BrewDog's got you covered with a pint before your flight. Gather your crew and raise a glass to good times and bold adventures. Pair your brew with delicious eats – think hearty bowls, satisfying apps, and handheld favorites.

BrewDog is located in Concourse B and open 10 a.m.-7:30 p.m.

Discover more

Lace up for a great cause

Join us on Saturday, September 14, for a fun run/walk on one of CMH's taxiways (construction detour, but same great fun!).

Help support Honor Flight Columbus while getting exercise and enjoying the fresh air. Don't miss out – registration is $50/person and is open now!

Sign up

IN THE NEWS

Busy John Glenn travel points to Columbus' growth
via NBC4

New terminal to be built by the diverse community it serves
via FlyColumbus.com